

OMS Prayerline – Sunday, April 18, 2021

Mark Nelson, Estonia

Ask God to give Mark much wisdom as he seeks to help one promising student who has been influenced by the "name it and claim it" movement. Ask God to give the student an open heart and mind to search the Scriptures.

Gilchrist, KC, OMS Canada Board Member

Gilchrist KC writes, "I humbly seek your prayer support for my Father SR Gilchrist, in India, who has tested positive with Covid 19. He is really having a difficult time but recovering at home as there were no beds available in the hospital. I am trusting in the Lord Jesus that He would hear our prayer and show mercy. Thank you so much for interceding for us." Pray also for Gilchrist as he remains in Ontario, unable to go and help his family.

The Muslim World

Muslims around the world are observing Ramadan, a month of fasting from before sunup to sundown. They believe that this will earn favour with God and help earn salvation. Pray that God will reveal Himself to many in this time, April 13 to May 12. Pray that Christ-followers will be diligent and wise to share God's love with Muslim friends and neighbours. Pray that people will be wise in how they gather during Ramadan and the Idul Fitri celebrations so that these traditional activities will not become super-spreaders for the Covid virus.

Brad and Caroline Buzza, Haiti

Brad's colon cancer is proving to be very aggressive and has already spread to his liver. The outlook is grim. Treatment now is mainly pain relief management. This was not what the doctors had expected and is a huge shock to Brad and Caroline. Pray for God's intervention and most of all for God's peace for Brad and Caroline as they process this news.

Because Jesus lives we can face life today, tomorrow, and forever,
