

OMS Prayerline - Monday, April 22, 2024

Susan Weil, Retired

Susan is part of a Dynamic Women team working in Mexico April 17-27. They will be in three locations, training women to share their faith with others.

Pray for safety and good health for the team members and participants.

Pray that the truths will be presented clearly and that the women will understand, remember and apply what they are learning.

Pray that many women in Mexico will come to know Jesus as their Saviour and Lord and then go and tell others.

"Brother Jim"* - United Kingdom

Brother Jim is transitioning from a ministry in the UK to new ministry in SE Asia in the fall.

Ask God to help him finish and leave well, with gratitude and good relationships, that those who have heard the Good News will continue in the faith.

Pray for his time in Canada that he can accomplish all that needs to be done and be ready to take up his new assignment in the fall.

Pray for rest, recuperation and good health. `

*Name withheld for security

Mark and Livia Nelson, Estonia

Mark has been invited to represent Estonia in a meeting with European churches in Croatia, April 22-24. Pray for God's wisdom and blessing in building connections and partnerships that will further God's Kingdom.

Pray for Mark as he leads the work on the new curriculum of the Estonian Methodist Seminary which will allow students to specialize, either in church growth, apologetics & evangelism, or Biblical studies. The curriculum must be complete by early June. Pray that it will be done well and provide the tools necessary to build stronger more dynamic churches.
