

OMS Prayerline – Monday, April 27, 2020

Colleen Taylor, Haiti

Colleen and her Haitian co-worker, Leslie, are working to finish the bookkeeping for the last fiscal year and enter all the information for the new fiscal year that began April 1.

As Colleen is on her brother's farm in Alberta and Leslie is on the OMS compound near Cap Haitien, pray for good communication and that God will stabilize internet connections that are notoriously poor. Pray that Leslie will be able to keep up with changes. The new wage schedule goes into effect on April 30.

Haiti Bethesda Medical Clinic

Continue to pray for the clinic as they minister to the people of northern Haiti. So far there are not many cases of COVID 19 reported in their area. Pray for funds for the medical supplies and that supplies will get to the clinic as the airports are closed. Pray too that the generators for the Clinic and Radio 4VEH will continue to function efficiently and consistently.

OMS Canada workers still on their fields

Last time I forgot to mention Bill and Sunnie Gulliver still at their posts at Morrison Academy, Taiwan. My apologies Pray that those still on the fields will have God's peace in the storm of reports about COVID 19. Ask God to give them many opportunities to share about the source of that peace with anxious people around them.

Because Jesus lives we can face life today, tomorrow, and forever,
