

OMS Prayerline - Monday, August 21, 2023

Profesional Overseas, C.

A group of believers from a neighbour country with a similar language is coming to visit on the 24th and 25h. The visitors will team up with local believers to visit four villages, to talk and pray with people. Believers from all over the world are praying and fasting on Monday 21st, to prepare the way. Ask God's to open hearts and minds, that many will accept God's great gift.

Brother Jim, North Ireland

Brother Jim has relatives in the West Kelowna area where the wildfires are raging. They do not yet know the Saviour. Ask that this calamity will help them, and many like them, to open their hearts to God. Pray that local believers and believers from outside will bring practical and spiritual help.

Beaty McLean, Men for Missions

Please pray for Wiljennie, the daughter of Pastor Wiljean Compere. (Pastor Wiljean, once a child sponsored through school, is now being used by God in the Cap Haitien area.) Wiljennie and her husband now live in New Brunswick.

In the past few months Wiljennie has developed a painful problem with her eyes. Medication has helped only a little and doctors are still trying to determine the real problem.

Wiljennie is struggling with much pain, much weakness, and how to care for her 2 young children. It is discouraging.

Please pray for an accurate diagnosis and effective treatment, spiritual encouragement and practical help for Wiljennie and her husband.
