

OMS Prayerline - August 29, 2019

Archie and Geri Kittler, OMS Canada Board

Kittlers ask us to pray for a niece diagnosed with Leukemia on Friday the 16th. Her first Chemo treatment was the 20th! Although a believer, she is in a bit of shock over how suddenly everything happened! Pray that family members will be drawn to Jesus through this!

They also ask us to pray for a cousin who was involved in a horrible traffic accident with serious injuries. Ask God to touch him in every area of his life, physical and spiritual.

Nathan Krampitz, Retired.

Continue to pray for Nathan and his family, (Susan Weil, OMS Mozambique, is Nathan's daughter), as they mourn the loss of Nathan's wife, Anne, and yet rejoice that she is free from pain, safely in heaven.

There will be visitation on Thursday, Aug. 29 from 6-9 pm at Donald V. Brown Funeral Home in Stoney Creek. The memorial service will be at Mount Hamilton Baptist Church 626 Upper Wentworth St, Hamilton at 2 pm on Friday afternoon Aug. 30. (Private internment will take place early that day).

Correction: Anne Krampitz went to heaven early Sunday morning, 25th, not the 24th as stated in yesterday's PrayerLine. Our apologies.

Hong Kong

Please pray that churches and individual believers will know God's peace and show God's light and love in these days.

Because Jesus lives we can face life today, tomorrow, and forever,
