

OMS Prayerline - Thursday, August 29, 2024

Professionals Overseas, P.

P and his wife are in Japan as the field prepares for an influx of new workers. A Men for Missions group is coming to renovate the campus housing. Ask for God's direction as they work.

Pray for P. and his wife as they consult with the people already on the campus and plan for new people to arrive. Housing, language teachers, schooling for children, and endless cultural adjustments are just some of the things to pray about.

Maud McHardy, Retired

Maud and her late husband, John, were OMS Canada directors from 1964 - 1979, then regional directors in western Canada until their retirement in 1982. John made numerous trips across Canada to promote the work of OMS while Maud stayed at home, taking care of the office and home. She had a sharp wit, a distinct Irish accent and a servant heart to care for the Canadian missionaries.

At 104 years of age and nearing the end of her earthly journey, Maud's family have moved her into palliative care. Her three sons have come to be with her. Pray for God's presence to be very real to each one.

Kyle and Destinee Martin, Men for Missions

Pray for God's comfort and strength for Kyle, Destinee and their boys as they mourn the passing of Destinee's grandmother. Ask for God's strong and comforting arms to hold them and their extended family during this time.
