

OMS Prayerline –Wednesday, August 31, 2022

Larry and Susan Weil, OMS USA, Finance Department

Larry will have his old, worn out pacemaker replaced on September 1 with a newer, 3-lead model. Pray that the procedure will go smoothly and for a prompt recovery. Ask that these will be days of great spiritual blessing. Pray for those who will be covering Larry's duties while he is away from his desk.

Professional Overseas B

Praise God that B has arrived in North Ireland and found a suitable "flat". Pray for good contacts at the university and in the church. Pray also for his former neighbour in Ottawa who is grieving over the death of a close relative and also battling his own illness. Ask that this gentleman will come to know the God of all comfort for himself.

Ed Job Family, MFM

Ed Job, Men for Missions Associate Staff Member, went home to heaven early in the morning of August 30th. His daughter, Karen, served as Chairperson of the OMS Canada Board for a number of years.

Please uphold Ed's wife, Joyce, and their extended family in this time of mourning. Pray for wisdom in all the things that need to be taken care of.

Professional Overseas C

C. is in Canada for a short time of rest and to apply for a new visa to return to Thailand. Please pray that all the paperwork can be finished in the allotted time. Ask for good times with family and friends that will refresh him physically and spiritually. Ask God to give him a clear focus as he begins work in a new city.

Because Jesus lives we can face life today, tomorrow, and forever,

Tina Markeli
