

OMS Prayerline –Monday, August 8, 2022

Professional Overseas, B.

At long last, B is on his way to minister to international students at a university in Belfast, No. Ireland. He will leave August 9, visit supporters in Europe and arrive in Belfast on the August 19.

Pray for

- good travel, including opportunities to share Good News with others
- that he will be able to find suitable accommodations for this academic year.
- good contacts with international students who have open hearts
- that students who come to know the Saviour will learn to reach out to others in areas where westerners cannot go.

Professionals Overseas P

P and his wife are giving training seminars for local leaders this week.

Pray for

- safe travel
- translators who really grasp the ideas presented and make them understandable to the participants
- encouragement for leaders in isolated places

Mark and Livia Nelson, Estonia

Mark's mother is in hospital. Pray for God's comfort for her and for Mark an ocean away. Pray also for strength and wisdom for Mark's sister who is the caregiver for their mother.

Because Jesus lives we can face life today, tomorrow, and forever,
