

OMS Prayerline – Thursday, December 3, 2020

Renate, OMS Supporter

Renate had elbow surgery a year ago and is still dealing with severe pain which makes it especially difficult to sleep at night. Please pray for God's healing touch and for wisdom for the health care providers. Her husband, Gus, is also losing muscle mass and is not very mobile. Pray for God's healing and peace.

Albert Nykamp, Men for Missions

Albert underwent surgery for cancer on December 1. Things looked quite positive. However, today his wife, Lysje, is asking us to pray. Albert is undergoing a scan and doctors are looking for blood clots and signs of a heart attack. Thank you for your continued prayers for Albert, Lysje, their family, and Albert's medical team.

Persecuted Church

Christmas is often an excuse for more attacks on churches and fellow believers in many different parts of the world. Please pray that God will give His children special grace not to give in to fear, to love those who persecute them and forgive them, and to remain strong in their faith in Jesus.

Because Jesus lives we can face life today, tomorrow, and forever,
