

OMS Prayerline – Tuesday, December 31, 2019

Danmar Tkachenko, Men for Missions

Danmar Tkachenko, MFM Cabinet member from NS has been suffering abdominally for a while.

He has been recently diagnosed with diverticulitis. Testing ruled out Crohns. Surgery is scheduled for this afternoon, December 31. A seven-week hospitalized recovery is predicted. Pray for the surgical team. Pray for no infection. Pray for peace for Danmar and for Jessica and their three kids. Pray for Jessica as she cares for three young children on her own and carries the fourth. She is scheduled for a C-section on January 21.

Have a blessed New Year

A devotional I read on the Desiring God.org website asks "What one thing can you do in this coming year to enjoy God more?" You may want to read Psalm 37:1-5 to put that question into context.

Thank you for your continued support and prayers and may you really enjoy God in 2020.

Because Jesus lives we can face life today, tomorrow, and forever,
