Haiti

Stacey Ayars writes, "

"...while Mardi Gras always means extra chaos and confusion in Haiti, (Feb 23-25), the dark season we are in seems to deepen with some major non-peaceful protests between the police and the army...gang activity...rising the concerns and levels of discouragement among our Haiti family (you can try to understand with the Miami Herald, but...it's all a complicated mess.) It's a mess at the hands of a few, and frustration, discouragement, heartbreak and fear in the hearts of most.

When you read of brokenness in the world, pray like you're in the middle. Pray like she's your sister...pray like they're your children. Pray like he is next to you, pray like the future looming was yours."

(NB. That's good advice as we pray for Canada's current crisis as well. Tina)

Mobilization - Donna-Lee Sisson

Continue to pray for the people who expressed interest in working with OMS during recent Mission Fests. Ask God to keep the vision and burden fresh in their hearts.

Pray for preparations for conferences coming up in Ft. St. John, BC, Halifax, NS, as well as Global Connections at Prairie Bible College, Three Hills, AB. Ask God to give Donna-Lee special strength for the travel, meeting many new people, and following up those who show interest.

Because Jesus lives we can face life today, tomorrow, and forever,
