Haiti

News from another organization Haiti and passed on by Dave Graffenberger

"Haiti is experiencing another cycle of increased violence, demonstrations, widespread gunshots, - including in the north, Cap-Haitien and area, as former rebel leader Guy Philippe and his supporters are calling for a "revolution" to oust the acting Prime Minister, Ariel Henry from power."

Monday, January 29, most schools, businesses, clinics were closed because of blocked roads.

"February 7 is a significant date in Haitian history and calls for revolution are leading up to this date. (This is the date when the dictatorship of Duvalier (Papa Doc, then Baby Doc) ended and so called "democracy" began."

Please pray that God will intervene and give strength to pastors and all Christian workers in Haiti, including those at Emmaus University, Bethesda Medical Center and Radio/TV 4VEH.

4 VEH continues broadcasting the Gospel. Pray that God's Word will bring hope and strength and make a difference in the lives of Haitian people.

Lunar New Year

Lunar New Year, observed officially in Asia and SE Asia, falls on February 10. Traditional celebrations include going to visit relatives and making offerings to the ancestors. Pray for Asian believers to find ways to express their appreciation for their ancestors and heritage without crossing into ancestor or idol worship. This takes courage and can cause great tension in families. Ask God to give His children holy boldness and godly wisdom.
