

OMS Prayerline – Thursday, January 27, 2022

Larry and Susan Weil, OMS USA

Larry and Susan ask us to pray for their OMS co-workers, Melvin and Sharon Kelly from No. Ireland. Their oldest son, Joshua, age 12, has been diagnosed with leukemia. He is in hospital in North Ireland as they are on furlough just now.

Pray for Joshua to have strength and keep a positive attitude during the tests and chemotherapy treatment that will start almost immediately. Pray for God's peace for Melvin and Sharon as they make decisions and for Joshua's siblings, Abigail (his twin sister), Noah and Lydia.

Pray for the Mozambique team as they adjust to the prolonged absence of their field leader and as they welcome three new single workers.

Pavlo and Halya Lozynsky, Ukraine

As the situation in Ukraine heats up with Russian troops just across the border, the OMS team in Kviv has been evacuated to Hungary. Pavlo and Halya are much further west in Lviv and have asked to stay.

Ask God to keep His hand on the situation and use it to make people aware of their need for Him. Pray for God's protection over His people throughout the country, that Ukrainian leaders will continue the Bible studies in Kviv.

Pray for God's peace and wisdom for Pavlo and Halya and their girls and that Pavlo will have God's leading for ministry.

Because Jesus lives we can face life today, tomorrow, and forever,

Tina Markeli
