

OMS Prayerline –Tuesday, January 3, 2023

THANK YOU

Thank you, more than we can ever tell you, for your support in prayer. Your partnership encourages us and accomplishes more than we can know here on earth.

From all of us at OMS Canada, Happy New Year. May these days bring a deep sense of God's presence and strength that carries into the coming year.

But to paraphrase Romans 8:38 and 39, "...neither war, nor famine, nor climate change, nor illness, nor economic difficulties will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus."

Happy New Year with God!

Haiti

Continue to pray for Haiti and especially for God's people there that they will experience God's joy even in the midst of the difficulties.

Mobilization

Urbana, the big student conference organized by Inter Varsity Christian Fellowship, is taking place in Indianapolis until the evening of December 31.

As students, and other participants, are challenged to yield their lives to Christ and consider the needs of the world, pray that many will not only hear God's call but answer with a firm "Here am I. Send me."

Pray for the OMS team of mobilizers as they interact with students to sense God's leading for each contact, giving just the right information to each one. Pray for new workers to be sent out through OMS Canada.

Because Jesus lives we can face life today, tomorrow, and forever,
