

OMS Prayerline – Friday, January 6, 2023

Mark and Livia Nelson, Estonia

The Methodist Bishop for Northern Europe will be meeting with Estonian pastors this weekend about the decision of the Estonian church to separate. Pray that God will guide in the discussion for a mutually agreeable solution. Ask that the Estonian pastors will hold true to God's Word.

Rod and Jan Dormer

Rod and Jan will be in the South Pacific region January 5-28 leading a team of nine students from Taylor University. The students will teach English in a number of schools and universities. Ask God to guide and protect them, particularly in situations where people do not understand the Christian faith. Ask God to call some of these students to serve in nations where Christ is not yet known.

Professional Overseas, P.

P and his wife are participating in the meeting of Regional leaders at the OMS USA office this week. Ask God to give much wisdom for these leaders in their responsibilities for the work of OMS. P and his wife will lead a retreat in Thailand for all the OMS workers in the Asia-Pacific region January 16-18. Pray for safe travel for each participant and good times of refreshing; that each one will hear from God for their personal life and for their ministry. Pray for healing for bodies, hearts and spirits.

Because Jesus lives we can face life today, tomorrow, and forever,

Tina Markeli

Prayerline Coordinator,

OMS Canada

prayerline@omscanada.org