

OMS Prayerline –Monday, January 9, 2023

Phyllis and Donna Lee Sisson, Retired

Phyllis, the former Director of Prayer Ministries, is battling pneumonia and exhaustion after helping her daughter, Donna-Lee, confined to a wheelchair.

Phyllis writes:

Very slow improvement here.

Praise notes: Antibiotics dealt with pain. Lung debris is moving. Eating very small portions of food. Can sit up comfortably for 20 minutes. Sleeping better at night.

Prayer requests:

Re my weight, I dropped 18 lbs. in 15 days. Please pray my body will be able to absorb food effectively. Also, it is difficult to drink as much as I should.

Re Donna-Lee, there are 3 friends from her church and one from mine who are assisting her for a bit this week. Today no one is in and no one yet for Friday. One of those friends will take her to the Cardiologist in Bracebridge on Tues to address her Congestive Heart Failure and related issues.

Dean, my son, is of great help. His company always shuts down for 2 weeks at Christmas. He has been our lifesaver, but went back to work today. He will pick up some of the slack in the evenings. Please pray he doesn't over-do. He always needs to be in bed early.... like 8'ish when he works. He is gone basically from 6:00 am to 6:00 pm.

Appreciate your prayer support and the OMS family prayer-ers!! May God bless you!
