New Workers

Jesus said, "The harvest is great. Therefore, pray the Lord of the Harvest to send workers."

Today there are more people than ever who need to hear the Gospel, many with little or no opportunity to hear it. Please pray for new workers for OMS fields.

Mark Kroes, OMS Canada Director, is in communication with two couples who are interested in serving in missions. Ask God to divinely lead both Mark and these couples in where and how He wants them to serve.

South Pacific Field

Pray for the recent graduates of the two OMS-related seminaries as they adjust to full-time ministry. Some are starting work in new places. Ask God to lead them to those whose hearts are prepared to hear God's Word. Ask for wisdom in finding a suitable place to live, making contacts with neighbours., and unity in each team. Pray that each new worker will be careful to maintain a close relationship with God.

Pray also for preparations for the new classes at the seminary. Ask that the new Christian Education program will receive government accreditation.
