

OMS Prayerline – Tuesday, July 20, 2021

Islamic World

Muslims around the world will celebrate, Eid al-Adha on July 20, to commemorate Abraham's offering of his son and God's provision to save the son's life. Those who can do so, will sacrifice an animal and donate the meat to the poor. Those who can afford it will go to Mecca on the holy pilgrimage called the Hajj. They hope that this will earn them a place in paradise. Please pray that many will feel a holy dissatisfaction with the sacrifice of animals and the rituals. Ask God to reveal Himself to them, to open their spiritual eyes to understand that only Jesus is the perfect sacrifice to reconcile us to God. Pray for Christ-followers everywhere to reach out to Muslim neighbours, to show them God's love, and gently share God's Word.

Haiti

Please continue to pray for Christian leaders in Haiti.

Storly and Kate Michel, 4 VEH Radio and TV

Dr. Guenson Charlot, Emmaus University

Rev. Joseph Pierre, President of the Emmaus Fellowship churches

Rev Lucee Luciene, Coordinator of the ECC teams

Dr. Rodney Baptiste, Bethesda Medical Center (OMS Canada can no longer accept donations for Bethesda but we carry them in our hearts.)

Pray that God will bring peace and stability to the country.

Mark and Livia Nelson, Estonia

A few months back Mark and Livia asked us to pray for a young couple whose first child was stillborn and a few weeks later the girl's mother died. A local pastor and congregation supported and helped them in their grief.

Praise God that both the young man and the young woman have come to believe in Jesus. They will be married this Saturday and are preparing for baptism. Ask God to keep them faithful and growing in this new life with Jesus.

Because Jesus lives we can face life today, tomorrow, and forever,

Tina Markeli

Prayerline Coordinator,
OMS Canada

prayerline@omscanada.org