Muslim World

Muslims are celebrating the Day of Sacrifice (Idul Adha or Eid-ul-Adha) July 9-12 to commemorate God's provision of an animal as a sacrifice instead of Abraham's son. It is a time to celebrate and share with the poor. Thousands have gone on pilgrimage to their holy city of Mecca. As they hope their good works will be enough to earn a place in heaven, pray that many will hear of God's great sacrifice for them.

Pray for Christians reaching out to their Muslim neighbours to listen to their heart cries and to share God's love.

Third Culture Kids

Many missionary families return to their passport countries at this time of the year and the adjustments are huge. Pray especially for the children who are trying to make new friends and preparing to enter new schools in the fall. Some may be going to boarding schools. Others, who have graduated from high school, will be entering college or university. Ask God to help families as they face these changes, especially those families where children will be living away from their parents. Ask that each child or teen will choose to walk faithfully with God in these changes.

Because Jesus lives we can face life today, tomorrow, and forever,
