Mark and Livia Nelson, Estonia

The Methodist Seminary in Tallinn, Estonia, and the church leadership are in important meetings this week until Saturday. Decisions must be made concerning the future of the church after separating from the larger denomination and seeing how that impacts both the Estonia church and the seminary. As for much wisdom and grace. Pray for protection from the attacks of the evil one and the God's Spirit will lead and prevail.

Pray for special strength for Mark and Livia; physically, emotionally and spiritually. Mark has played a key role in the discussions about the future of the church and seminary.

"Brother Jim", UK

Pray for Brother Jim* as he seeks God's direction on whether to continue in his current ministry with international students in the UK or whether to move to another field in Asia.

Ask that students who heard the Gospel this past year will remember and be moved to yield their lives to God.

* Not his real name for security reasons.
