

OMS Prayerline - Saturday, June 22, 2024

Mary Lou Wunker, OMS Canada Board Member

Please pray for Brent, a family friend and chairman of the board at our church. He was unconscious Sunday and was airlifted to hospital in Toronto. He is still in a coma. MRI shows abnormalities in the brain stem, low kidney function (decreasing still), etc. Bacterial meningitis is still seen as a possibility, but testing continues as they look for other possibilities.

Mark and Livia Nelson, Estonia

Mark and Livia are the featured speakers at the Men for Missions (MFM) barbecue in Langley, BC, on June 22. Pray for God's anointing as they share about their ministry in the Estonian Ministry House, (affectionately called "The Nut House" for it's hazelnut trees). Nelsons will go on to the Okanagan to share with more people. Pray that God will provide the funds to replace and raise the rotting roof so that they can make room for more guests.

Drs. Guenson and Claudia Charlot, Emmaus University

Drs. Guenson and Claudia will arrive in Ontario on June 25 to start a month long fund raising tour in Ontario and Alberta. Despite the chaos and violence in Haiti, the shortage of food and exorbitant gas prices, Emmaus was able to complete the school year. Praise God!

Pray for safe travel for the Charlots and OMS Canada staff who are helping them. Ask for open hearts as people hear about Haiti and the needs of the University, (formerly Emmaus Bible School).
