

OMS Prayerline – Thursday, March 26, 2020

Haiti, Bill and Julie Edler

Thank you for praying for the Edlers. They now have a flight booked for Friday morning, Port au Prince to Paris. PRAY that they will be able to get to Port au Prince safely in time for the flight and that they will get on the flight safely.

A bit of explanation:

The problem yesterday was that Missionary Flights International is not a commercial carrier and was not given permission to bring UK citizens into the USA, although everyone tried very, very hard.

Miss Pam, a short term lecturer at Emmaus in recent weeks, is also British. So she was not stranded alone and will be travelling with the Edlers to Paris.

National Church Leaders and Pastors

At the best of times people come to the national pastors with problems and often ask for financial or material help. They also trust the pastors to come and pray for the sick and dying and to comfort the grieving.

In places where social distancing is almost impossible, where medical systems are not adequately staffed or resourced, and where Christians may not be welcome, the pastors and evangelists carry a very heavy load. Ask God to give them and their families His supernatural strength and grace and provisions.

Because Jesus lives we can face life today, tomorrow, and forever,
