

OMS Prayerline – Friday, March 27, 2020

Haiti, Colleen Taylor, Bill and Julie Edler

Praise God that Colleen is safely back in Alberta, in quarantine.

Praise God that Edlers and Miss Pam, a short-term teacher at Emmaus, did make the flight from Port au Prince to Paris. Pray them through the last bit to North Ireland and England for Miss Pam.

Pray for God's healing and restoring touch on all the people evacuated out of Haiti on very short notice.

Pray for the Haitian pastors and the staff at Bethesda Medical Centre as they face the coming days and uncertainty with very limited resources.

Day of Prayer and Fasting

Some Canadian Members of Parliament have called for a day of prayer and fasting,

Saturday March 28th, 8am - 5 pm Mountain Daylight Time.

You can register here National Day of Prayer or type www.nationaldayofprayer.ca into your browser. You do need to register for this one.

The World Evangelical Alliance has called for a worldwide day of prayer and fasting on Sunday, March 29th. Click on www.covid19.worlddea.org/global-day-of-prayer-fasting or type it into your browser.

They have some great resources.

Even if you do not take all day or fast, please make time to pray this weekend. Remember that fasting can be from food. It can also be setting aside some other activity like media devices. May God be glorified.

Because Jesus lives we can face life today, tomorrow, and forever,
