

OMS Prayerline – Monday, March 7, 2022

Ukraine, Pavlo and Halya Lozynsky

- Pavlo and his family live and minister in the city of Lviv in the west of Ukraine.
- Pray for protection for Pavlo and his family, including their daughters and Halya's sister and her new baby. Pavlo is considering how to evacuate Halya, their daughters and Halya's sister and baby to Poland.
- Pray that seeds of the Gospel will bear fruit.
- Pray for wisdom as they try to help as many as they can; that Pavlo and Halya will draw their strength from God's inexhaustible resources
- Pray for emotional healing for the people of Ukraine
- Pray for the Ukrainian government as they make decisions
- Pray that the war will end soon.
- Pray that the Ukrainian believers will be strengthened and faithful

Mark and Livia Nelson, Estonia

- Refugees from Ukraine are arriving. Most have family or friends here but the Seminary dormitory and several church facilities are ready to receive refugees as needed.
- 58 Ukrainian citizens have studied in our Seminary. To the best of our knowledge, no graduates are in current danger but some former students who did not graduate probably are. Every one has family or friends in danger. Pray!

- Our Russian Language Bible teacher is from Odessa on Ukraine's Black Sea coast. Praise God her mother and other relatives arrived safely in Tallinn and are staying with her.
- Pray for the Russian people, that they would see the truth of what is happening and have the courage to stand for it. It seems that the vast majority of Russians living in western countries (like Estonia) do understand. Pray that they would not be made to feel guilty or isolated in this tense environment. Pray for peace and unity especially in the Body of Christ!
- There is considerable concern among leaders that the war could spread to Estonia as well. Pray against panic, but for smart strategic decisions as well.
- Simon, our Ghanaian graduate, whose wife tragically died in Ghana before Christmas, needs prayer. The funeral was delayed until mid-March. People here helped him with the cost of tickets to return, but his pre-flight COVID test came back positive. He is currently in quarantine, unsure whether he will make it home for the funeral or not. Pray that God will make this happen and that Simon will be open to the future path God has for him.
- Livia is still waiting for a response to her application to renew her living permit in Estonia. The new permit should have come 3 weeks ago. Now there are about 3 weeks left until her current permit expires. This is stressful! Pray that it will come!
- Jude 3 reminds us to stand against false teaching, which is also a major part of my work. Like Jude, I wish I could just teach the Bible, but right now I am asking you to stand by us, on your knees in prayer.

Virtual Prayer Gatherings

OMS Canada hosts two virtual prayer gatherings per week, on Tuesday morning and Thursday evening. If you would like to join us in prayer for Ukraine, give us a call or send an email and we will give you the Zoom links.
