Men For Missions

The MFM Cabinet is meeting this weekend, (4th and 5th), and ask for God's direction for making decisions about the ministry.

MFM will host a banquet on Saturday evening in White Rock, BC. Pray that God will touch many hearts to be fully committed to God.

Praise God for a new director for MFM Canada, Kyle Martin, also from White Rock, BC. Ask God to guide him in raising his support, and to help him balance his responsibilities as husband and father to two young sons.

Kevin Willms, longtime MFMer, is facing some serious health challenges. Ask God to give him and his doctors wisdom on how to manage ongoing issues. Pray for God's peace to guard the hearts of Kevin and his family members.

Haiti

Gangs continue to disrupt life in Haiti blocking roads, extorting money and halting the distribution of fuel to the rest of the country. Schools, including Emmaus University, are closed. Radio/TV 4VEH is unable to broadcast due to lack of fuel but one small FM station is doing minimal broadcasts thanks to solar power.

Dr Guenson Charlot, president of Emmaus University, reminds us of the importance of education for the next generation. He sees the potential of the young men who block roads and create chaos and longs to see them use their energy for good.

PRAY that God will change the hearts of the gang leaders and bring calm and stability to the country.

PRAY that the pastors and Christian leaders will faithfully share God's Word during this difficult time.

Because Jesus lives we can face life today, tomorrow, and forever,
