Mark and Livia Nelson, Estonia

On Tuesday and Wednesday Mark will be in Copenhagen representing the Estonian Church at a regional meeting of the international denomination's leaders. In June, the Estonian Church voted 96% in favour of severing ties with the denomination due to their growing acceptance of the liberal / progressive / woke agenda. This meeting is to discuss the steps that we will take to formally be independent by 1 July 2023. This regional meeting is dominated by those who oppose Estonia's conservative stance so it feels like going in before Pharaoh and saying "Let my people go!"

Please pray that God would give me wisdom and courage and that the scheming of the enemy would be exposed and made powerless. Most of all, pray that this step by the Estonian Church would lead to a spiritual revival and the beginning of an amazing work of God in this country.

Because Jesus lives we can face life today, tomorrow, and forever,
