

OMS Prayerline - Wednesday, October 11, 2023

Mark Kroes, OMS Canada Director

Please pray for Mark and Charlotte as Mark is scheduled for surgery on Wednesday, 11th, shortly after lunch. Pray that God will guide the doctors' hands, give speedy healing and prevent all infection. Ask God to give Mark and Charlotte and their family members His special peace.

Haiti

As a result of a dispute over the use of water in the river that separates northern Haiti and the Dominican Republic, the Dominican Republic has shut all land, air and sea borders with Haiti. This stops the flow of food and medicines into Haiti and stops Haitians from going to work in the Dominican Republic, making an already bad situation much worse. Dr. Rodney says that Bethesda Medical Center will run out of medicines by the end of October unless they can get new supplies.

Pray that the two countries will resolve this dispute quickly.

Pray that the gangs will release their hold on Haiti.

Pray for the strongholds of Satan to be broken.

Pray that these very difficult times will result in the salvation and spiritual growth among the people.

Pray that Bethesda Medical Center will be able to serve all who come.

Pray for miracle provisions of medicines and supplies for Bethesda Medical Center.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING

We thank God for all that He has done; the many answers to prayer that He has given.

We thank God for you, our faithful prayer team; your willingness to intercede for OMS missionaries and ministries.

We thank God for every person who came to know Jesus this past year.

We thank God that He is faithful, He is good, all the time, and He will be good for every day to come.

We thank God for the many things He will do and for the people He is bringing to Himself because of your prayers.

Mark Nelson, Estonia

Praise God that Mark's sister has a clear diagnosis and there is treatment for her condition.

Professional Overseas, C.

Praise God that C. had safe travels and is able to spend Thanksgiving with his family in Saskatchewan.

Pray that he will get good rest and be prepared to start visiting Bible Colleges in a few weeks to share the need for more workers on OMS fields.
