

OMS Prayerline - Wednesday, October 16, 2024

Mark and Livia Nelson, Estonia

Mark and Livia both have colds. They are not seriously ill but this is a particularly inconvenient time for both of them. Please pray for healing and for strength for them.

- Monday Mark gave a two hour Bible training program to the leadership team of a very active congregation lead by a Seminary graduate.
- Wednesday, Mark has an intensive 8 hour day teaching Ethics.
- Friday and Saturday is a meeting of all Estonian pastors where Mark is supposed to give a presentation related to the future leadership structure of the denomination after formally separating from the international denomination a year ago. This is a really important meeting!
- Livia also has an eventful week, with planning meetings, etc. in addition to her teaching.

Heidi and Carmen, OMS Canada Office

September 30 marked the end of the fiscal year for OMS Canada. As we "close the books", prepare reports, and prepare for the annual, external audit, pray for accuracy, attention to detail, and the joy of the Lord to be our strength.

Pray also for God's protection over our families during this busy time of the year. We want to be godly wives and mothers even when there is extra work at the office.

Professionals Overseas P.

Please pray for our son who is still looking for suitable work in Ontario.

After some very busy weeks we are taking time to rest. Pray for special times with God and each other so that we will be fresh and strong to resume our work.
