Professional Overseas, P.

In their role as area directors, P and his wife have begun six weeks of visiting coworkers in a number of countries. It is an intense schedule. Pray for the logistics, (flights, baggage, in country travel arrangements, etc.) good health, (any illness could lead to long quarantine times), and connections with coworkers that will make our Father's work even more effective.

Praise

Professional C. has found a suitable house and car.

Mark Nelson sensed God's help and strength on a recent trip to Copenhagen, representing the Estonian Church at a special conference.

Thank you for praying.

Mark and Livia Nelson, Estonia

Mark thank us for praying for his recent trip to Copenhagen. Please continue praying that the Estonian Methodist Church will be firm in their commitment to be obedient to God's Word as they negotiate a friendly separation from the main denomination. Pray for Mark as he plays a key role in this process.

After twelve years of teaching in Estonian schools, Livia's qualifications are being questioned by the department that evaluates foreign diplomas. Ask God to direct the officials to give an accurate assessment and bring this to a quick and fair resolution. Pray that God will give Livia and Mark His special peace during this process.

Professional B., North Ireland

B asks us to pray for God's protection over a student who is seeking God's truth. Pray also for God's protection over all international students as various groups seek to win them to world views and beliefs that do not line up with Scripture.

Because Jesus lives we can face life today, tomorrow, and forever,
