

OMS Prayerline - December 10, 2018

John and Tricia Fraser, Hungary

Tricia and their daughter, Hannah, have just completed a trip to the USA where Hannah was interviewed for the honors program at Houghton College and also visited Roberts Wesleyan College in preparation for her post-secondary education. Pray with them for God's clear direction about this and for a successful finish to her high school studies in Hungary.

Christmas Around the World

Believers around the world are celebrating Christ's coming into our world. Many will do so very openly, inviting friends and neighbours who might not come to a church any other time. Others will celebrate very quietly, and some in fear, so as not to stir up unnecessary opposition.

Please pray that all believers will take the opportunities they have to share God's Good News and that God will touch hearts to believe. Ask for courage and peace for those who face opposition or separation from loved ones because of the Gospel.

Because Jesus lives we can face life today, tomorrow, and forever,
