HAITI

Stacey Ayers, Emmaus Seminary, writes:

"Vertieres Day is upon us, the 18th of November, the day Haiti remembers the major, bloody battle between Haitian rebels and the French occupants of 1803. Vertiere is located a few minutes from here, right outside of Cap-Haitian.

Vertieres Day is not really the problem, of course. But all the long-standing, complicated problems of Haiti have been growing, and now are being urged to the surface because it's Vertieres Day.

Calls for action and change are being mingled with calls for violence and destruction.

Please be praying for Haiti these days. Pray for the many people who make her up, pray for the many changes that need to happen, pray for the process of change, as well. How long has Satan used violence and destruction to hold Haiti in fear and darkness, in poverty physical and spiritual.

I don't need to pray God strong or able, for He is. But we do pray for the courage of Haiti's leaders, from the capital to the smallest communities, for those living in Light, for true change, for true peace."

OMS Canada workers in Haiti are Bill and Julie Edler at Emmaus Seminary and Bethesda Medical Clinic, and Colleen Taylor, on the OMS compound. Pray also for Radio/TV 4 VEH and Cowman School.

Because Jesus lives we can face life today, tomorrow, and forever,

Tina Markeli
