Continuing Unrest in Haiti

Continue to pray for the nation of Haiti. Stacey Ayers (Emmaus University) reports that this is the fifth day that the country is at a virtual standstill.

"Haiti continues to be paralyzed by fear, uncertainty, frustration and lies. Today was the fifth day that our staff and students could not get to campus due to road blocks, barricades, and transportation strikes. This is the longest season like this that we have experienced in our years in Haiti, and all three airlines have cancelled flights in and out the last few days. Each day we get going, and each day we have to wait.

God is not. Not waiting. Not paralyzed. Not uncertain.

So we keep praying and praising and waiting.

Let us continue in prayer and praise and waiting on God as well.

Because Jesus lives we can face life today, tomorrow, and forever,
