

OMS Prayerline - Friday, September 20, 2024

Brother Jim*, in transition

Brother Jim is back in Canada, preparing to go to a new field. While in Canada he has been helping his brother as he recuperates from heart and ankle surgery. This morning "Brother Jim" found that his brother died during the night.

Please pray for God's comfort and strength for Brother Jim as he processes what has happened. Pray for a tangible sense of God's "everlasting arms" to carry him.

The Lausanne Conference for global missions exists to connect influencers and ideas for global mission—across issues, regions, and generations. Global workers from all over the world will gather in Incheon, Korea, September 22 -28.

Please pray that this conference will lead to sharing the Gospel with many more people, particularly in areas that are difficult to reach.

Pray for the logistics of the conference. They are expecting about 5000 in-person participants and more will follow online.

Pray for a mighty moving of the Holy Spirit to encourage, revive and invigorate participants for world evangelism and discipleship.

In a world increasingly hostile to Christians, pray for new connections and ideas to share the Gospel effectively.
