

OMS Prayerline - Wednesday, September 25, 2019

Haiti

Mary Lou Wunker writes, "Could you pray for Haiti, please. Ongoing gas shortages continue to cause chaos. No fuel for generating electricity, no transportation (most have no refrigerator so count on going to market every few days), escalating prices for supplies that are available, school opening postponed indefinitely, etc. Desperate, idle people try to get attention & action by demonstrating and blocking roads with burning debris, charging even pedestrians to pass through. Medical problems accentuated by lack of transportation and personnel often not able to get to work. And the list goes on...please pray earnestly!

UnFinished Conference

The task is still UnFinished. Please pray that those who have registered for this Conference will come with hearts open to hearing and obeying God's voice. Ask God to call and activate new workers, new prayer partners, and new donors.

Canada

Harvest in parts of the prairies is being hampered by frequent rainfall. Ask our God who created this world to help farmers bring in the harvest. Pray for God's peace for His children who are facing financial hardship if the weather does not improve dramatically.

Canada Elections

Pray that candidates, and their teams, will act with integrity, particularly those who identify themselves as Christians. Pray for strength for all who are working to make the elections as democratic as possible.

Because Jesus lives we can face life today, tomorrow, and forever,
